

Dr. Peter Senge

- Senior Lecturer at Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT)
- Named “Strategist of the Century” by the Journal of Business Strategy
- Rated amongst World’s Most Influential Business Thinkers by “The Financial Times, Business Week & The Wall Street Journal”
- Ranked in “Thinkers 50” in 2007
- Developed the concept of “The Learning Organization”
- Founding Chair of the Society of Organizational Learning

Dr. Peter M. Senge is a Senior Lecturer at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) and the Founding Chairperson of Society for Organizational Learning (SoL). He is author of The Fifth Discipline: The Art and Practice of The Learning Organization (1990, revised 2006) with more than two million copies sold Worldwide. The Fifth Discipline was identified by the Harvard Business Review in 1997 as One of the Seminal Management Books of the past 75 years and by the Financial Times as One of the 5 Most Important Management Books. He has written, with co-authors, a number of Organizational Learning Fieldbooks as well as Presence: Human Purpose and the Field of the Future (2004) and most recently, The Necessary Revolution: Working Together To Create a Sustainable World. Dr. Senge was named by The Journal of Business Strategy as One of the 24 people who had the Greatest influence on Business Strategy over the last 100 years (1999), and by The Financial Times, Business Week, and the Wall Street Journal as among the World’s Most Influential Business Thinkers.

The Most Effective people are those who can "HOLD" their Vision while remaining committed to seeing current Reality Clearly - Dr. Peter Senge

Look who is Learning with Dr. Peter!

